1st - 3rd December, 2022
HYDERABAD, INDIA

INVITATION

Dear Friends,

It is a privilege to host the Annual Conference of the Parenteral and Enteral Nutrition Society of Asia – PENSA, in India, and an honour to welcome you to the host city – Hyderabad, the City of Pearls! Our objective is to enable an excellent and a lively academic interaction and exchange of knowledge between the delegates, clinicians, clinical nutritionists, renowned academicians, and researchers. In addition, the exhibition and display of the merchandise by the professionals from the pharmaceutical industry will certainly add glitter to the occasion. It is our hope that the present pandemic a bates by December 2022, and provide an opportunity to experience the rich cultural heritage of India and the gourmet dishes of Hyderabad!

We welcome you to Hyderabad and India.

CONGRESS VENUE

Hyderabad International Convention Centre (HICC)

Hyderabad International Convention Centre (HICC) is managed by Accor Hotels, one of the world's leading hotel operators, and is jointly owned by Emaar Properties PJSC Dubai and Telangana State Industrial Infrastructure Corporation Ltd. HICC is a purpose-built, state-of-the-art convention facility, the first of its kind in South Asia. It features an internal hall measuring 6,480 square meters that can be partitioned into six smaller halls.

The facility has quite a few feathers in its cap. It has been the winner of the excellence award for "Best Standalone Convention Centre" for a record four times nationally and now regionally awarded by Ministry of Tourism, Government of India, and Andhra Pradesh. HICC has also received the award for 'Best Meeting & Conference Venue" at the South India Travel Awards 2015. HICC also holds ISO 14001:2014 certification. In every aspect, be it infrastructure, services, or technology, it compares with the best in the world.

CONGRESS HOST CITY

About Hyderabad

Welcome to the fastest growing metropolis in India.

Hyderabad is the capital of the Indian state of Telangana and de jure capital of Andhra Pradesh. Occupying 650 square kilometres (250 sq mi) along the banks of the Musi River, it has a population of about 6.7 million and a metropolitan population of about 7.75 million, making it the fourth most populous city and sixth most populous urban agglomeration in India. At an average altitude of 542 metres (1,778 ft), much of Hyderabad is situated on hilly terrain around artificial lakes.

Established in 1591 by Muhammad Quli Qutb Shah, Hyderabad remained under the rule of the Qutb Shahi dynasty for nearly a century before the Mughals captured the region. In 1724, Mughal viceroy Asif Jah I declared his sovereignty and created his own dynasty, known as the Nizams of Hyderabad. The Nizam's dominions became a princely state during the British Raj, and remained so for 150 years, with the city serving as its capital. The city continued as the capital of Hyderabad State after it was brought into the Indian Union in 1948 and became the capital of Andhra Pradesh after the States Reorganisation Act, 1956. Since 1956, Rashtrapati Nilayam in the city has been the winter office of the President of India. In 2014, the newly formed state of Telangana split from Andhra Pradesh and the city became the joint capital of the two states, a transitional arrangement scheduled to end by 2025.

PLACES TO VISIT

Charminar : Charminar, an alluring amalgamation of Indo-Islamic architecture is one of the most famous tourist attractions of Hyderabad. Built in the honour of his wife Bagmati, by Sultan Mohammed Quli Qutb Shah in 1591, Charminar is intricately carved square structure with four exquisite minars (pillars) on each side.

Golkonda Fort : Acoustic system at Fateh Darwaza. View from the highest point - Bala Hissar, Rahban' cannon. Ramdas' prison with carved Hindu deities on the wall. Captivating green lawns at the backdrop of majestic ancient fort. Light and sound show in evening.The fort is surrounded by walls of 15-18 feet high. Along with its impressive architecture, its system of acoustics is also worth noticing.

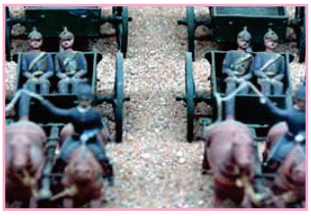

Qutub Shahi Tombs : Seven tombs of the Kings of Qutub Shahi Dynasty royals, constructed amid a peaceful garden. Tomb of Sultan Quli Qutub-ul-Mulk, the founder of Qutub Shahi Dynasty. Largest tomb of Mohammed Quli Qutub Shah- with height of 42 meters in height and 28 open arches.

Chowmallah Palace : Built in 18th Century, from a period of 1750 to 1869, Chowmahalla Palace was the seat of power for Nizam rulers, the Asaf Jahi Dynasty. Though, the major completion of this palace was done during the reign of Nizam Salabat Jang, architectural influences of other reigns can also be seen.

Salar Jung Museum : Boasts of being the third largest museums in the country, Salar Jung Museum is an important part of every Hyderabad tour. Spread over 10 acres of land, this museum is a personal collection of Nawab Mir Yusuf Ali Khan Salar Jung III. Artifacts belonging to Nawab Turab Ali Khan (Salar Jung I) and his descendants have also been kept at this museum.

Laad Bazar : Laad Bazaar is located quite close to the Charminar which is undoubtedly one of the most popular tourist spots of Hyderabad. Adjacent to the monument, the Laad Bazaar is stretched on four roads starting from Charminar and is spread across an area of one kilometre.

Nehru Zoo Park : Spread over an area of approximately 380 acres, the Nehru Zoo Park boasts of almost 1,500 species of birds, mammals and reptiles. Adding to the extensive varieties of wildlife, this zoo park is the first one where animals have been kept in zoological order.

Hussain Sagar Lake : A breathtaking, man-made water body in the heart of Hyderabad, Hussain Sagar, built in 1563 is a heritage site of India declared as the 'Heart of the World' by UNWTO for being the world's largest heart-shaped mark. Presenting a stunning visual, the world's largest monolithic Buddha statue rises 18 metres high from a red lotus pedestal on the rock of Gibraltar in the centre of the lake.

Taramati Baradari : Consisting of a music hall with 12 entrances which served as an auditorium, it used to be the place where the legendary artist Taramathi used to perform. Taramati along with Premamati were said to be most popular dancers and courtesans of the Abdullah Qutub Shah, 7th Sultan of Golconda.

Birla Mandir : A beautiful temple atop a hillock called Naubath Pahad in the heart of Hyderabad, Birla Mandir offers a panoramic view of the city. The temple presents a blend of Indian architectures and was constructed by the Birla Foundation with a staggering 2000 tons of pure white marble.

Purani Haveli : With its 18th-century European architecture, Purani Haveli, constructed in the early 1800s was once the official residence of the Nizam. It houses the Nizam's museum and the world's longest wardrobe built in two levels with a hand-cranked wooden lift in place.

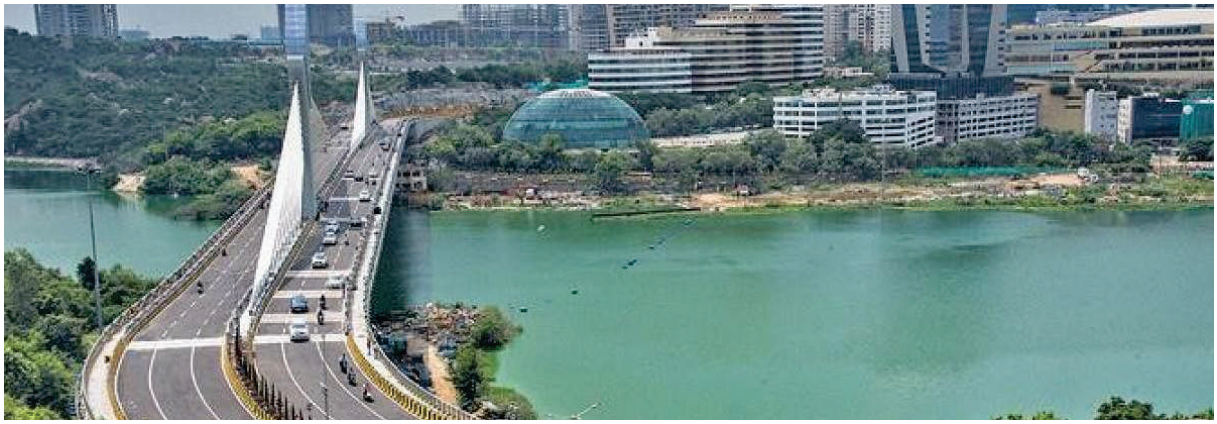

Shilparamam : A craft village, Shilparamam is one of the popular tourist spots of Hyderabad. Spread over 50 acres, is a popular shopping destination with artisans from all over India showcasing their best products. Handmade artifacts, hand woven, traditional clothes and traditional jewellery often lure visitors.

Paigah Tombs : Historic monuments of exquisite beauty, these 200-year-old lime and mortar tombs with beautiful inlaid marble carvings and stucco work retain an old-world charm and are the final resting place of the Paigahs, the most powerful noble families of Hyderabad, next only to the Nizams.
